LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring back color, gloss and youthful-ness with Grandma's recipe of Sage and Sulphur.

Common girden sage browed into a beavy tes, with sulphor and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hear beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Ten and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready to use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little coat, at drug stores, known in "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, failed hair is not sinful,

Suiphitr Compound, thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, failed hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and stiractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or coft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luvuriant, and you appear year's pounger. We the Sage and Sulphur Compound in a delightful toilet requisite. It is add intended for the cure migitation or Frevention of disease.

CEMEZERY SUPERINTENDENT CLMEAGEN STREET TENDERS

The senses report of the superintend, on a discorries relating C. Lane, was in section to common council at the council meeting Monday evening, rais report, which was accepted and ordered printed in the appendix to the Journal, is as follows:

To fills Honor the Mayor, and the court of common council of the city of Norwich:

Gentlemen: I herewith submit the department and unpaid May 15, 1922, per card ledger, $762.

Records of interments, disinterments and removals—Interments, Yantic cemetery, 91; interments, City cemetery, 1; interments, Greeneville cemetery, 8; total, 105; removals, disinterments, Yantic cemetery, 11.

During the year 1921-1922, all the trees in Yantic cemetery were trimmed and one dead tree removed. About twelve dead trees have been cut and removed from the city cemetery. A hedge of 500 barberry plants was set on the northerly line of the cemetery land adjoining the dviison fence of the Backus hespital A hydrangea hedge was set from the southerly entrance to the office building.

Over 500 sunken graves have been filled in and leveled up and about 400 leaning headstones have been straightened, and the appearance of the cemeteries greatly improved.

During the first three months of 1922, there were a very few burials and sno snow to speak of, and therefore the maintenance expense was less than the three corresponding months of the previous year which is a partial reason for the reduction of the maintenance account.
